What personal data we collect and why we collect it

The Yarnability website displays information about our products, events, and classes. The only point at which Yarnability collects personal information is when you submit a form or make a purchase. Yarnability collects your name, email address, and optional phone number for use in providing the product or class to you and to add you to our email list. Submitted form entries are kept in a secure environment; Yarnability employees follow Yarnability policies for maintaining security of personal information. You may request a copy of your form data up to the date of your acquiring the product or date of the class. Yarnability is not responsible for third-party website practices.

Yarnability DOES NOT collect your financial information; i.e. debit or credit card numbers. This is handled by our payment gateway (e.g. PayPal, Stripe, Square) when payment is made by card.

When you provide your email address to Yarnability, we use your address to provide information to you about your class or purchase and to update you about future classes or shop events. Yarnability does not share your email address. You may update your address or unsubscribe through the newsletter or upon contacting us.

Cookies

Most cookies on this website are session cookies meaning that they are automatically deleted at the end of a session using the website and are purely functional in allowing the website software to function.
